Welcome to the Camping Guide!

I am glad that you are taking advantage of this wonderful resource for camping promotions and determining where your troop should camp at next. Tipisa Lodge hopes that you take full advantage of this guide, as well as our other resources, including the High Adventure Guide and the Summer Camp Guide. The information in this guide was accurate upon completion; follow the web links provided to confirm the information or find out more about these camping sites.

Check out www.tipisa.org/resources/publications for the latest version of this camping guide. I would like to thank my mother for her contributions to these endeavors. Without her, these guides would not exist. For suggestions of changes to this guide, please email secretary@tipisa.org. Thanks again!

Order of the Arrow High Adventure

Each of the following High Adventure Bases have an OA high adventure program. Done as an individual scout, a youth Order of the Arrow member can attend any of the five OA high adventure programs, where they join a crew of around 20 other Arrowmen from around the country and spend two weeks at the camp. The first week is spent providing service to the camp and surrounding wilderness, and the second is spend executing a custom itinerary, experiencing the best each camp has to offer.

OA Trail Crew (Philmont), OA Ocean Adventure (Sea Base), OA Canadian Odyssey & OA Wilderness Voyage (Northern Tier), and OA Summit Experience (Summit Bechtel Reserve) all provide OA members with a unique, life changing experience. Participants must be youth members of the Order of the Arrow, be at least 16 (14 for OASE), and arrange their own transportation. The treks themselves costs only $200 - $400.

For more information, visit Adventure.aa-bsa.org.

Florida Sea Base

Locations:

Sea Base is located in five different areas: Islamorada, Florida; on Summerland Key; in the Florida Keys; in the Bahamas; and on the island of Saint Thomas.

Age Requirement:

All participants in Florida Sea Base programs must be at least 13 years old and have graduated from eighth grade. Some programs have their own special age requirements.

Programs:

- 1) Bahamas Tall Ship Adventure-Explore the Sea of Abaco and learn the workings of sailing and sea traveling.
- 2) Bahamas Adventure-Snorkel, swim, fish, and sail in the beautiful islands of the Bahamas.
- 3) Out Island Adventure-Camp out on Big Munson Island in the Bahamas. Participants will snorkel, fish, kayak, and explore around this island only accessible by them.
- 4) Sea Exploring-Explore the Keys aboard a classic sailing ship. Participants will have chances to snorkel, fish, and learn how to sail.
- 5) Coral Reef Sailing-A sailing expedition on a yacht where the participants design their own float plan. The captain will instruct participants in sailing, navigation, and fishing. The participants will have a chance to snorkel and fish.
- 6) Eco-Adventure-Explore the four major marine habitats of the Florida Keys. This program will provide participants with opportunities to snorkel, kayak, fish, and view nature through a glass-bottomed boat.
- 7) Florida Fishing-Spend a week fishing in the beautiful Florida Keys.
- 8) SCUBA Certification-Learn how to SCUBA dive and become SCUBA certified in the Florida Keys.
- 9) SCUBA Adventure-Participants must be SCUBA certified to participate in this program. Dive the coral reefs and wrecks of the Florida Keys. This program will provide participants with a chance to take eleven dives.
- 10) SCUBA Live Aboard-Participants must be SCUBA certified to participate in this program. Participants will be SCUBA diving and sailing around the Florida Keys over the course of this unique program. Participants will have a chance to take fifteen dives during this program.

11) Florida Keys Adventure-This a very flexible program in which participants decide how they want to spend their time. This program is a great sampling of most of the programs that Florida Sea Base has to offer.

12) Sea Base St. Thomas-Participants will travel to the tropical Virgin Islands. This program will consist of snorkeling and sailing.

13) Divemaster Training Academy-Participants must be at least 18 years old. This program gets the participants the training required to become certified PADI divemasters.

14) OA Ocean Adventure-Participants must be at least 16 years old and a registered member of an OA lodge. The first portion of the program provides an array of service opportunities including developing trails, removing invasive species, and preserving the flora and fauna of the Florida Keys. Participants will camp on both Big Munson Island and Crane Point during the service portion of the program. Afterwards, participants will move aboard a yacht for four days at sea. Participants will have a chance to sail, snorkel, fish, and swim in the Florida Keys.

Northern Tier

Location:

Northern Tier has three different locations: Ely, Minnesota; Ontario, Canada; and Manitoba, Canada.

Age Requirement:

All participants in Northern Tier programs must be at least 13 years old and have graduated from eighth grade.

Programs:

Summer Adventures:

- 1) Charles L Sommers Canoe Base-Participants will be able to canoe in the wilderness of Minnesota.
- 2) Donald Rogert Canoe Base-Participants will be able to canoe in the wilderness of Canada.
- 3) Northern Expeditions Canoe Base-This program is considered the most extreme Northern Tier adventure and should only be undertaken by crews with previous high adventure experience. Participants will be flown into the wilderness and then canoe the most rugged and remote region paddled by crews at Northern Tier.

Individual Programs:

- 1) OA Wilderness Voyage-Participants must be at least 16 years old and registered members of an OA lodge. The first week of this program has participants restoring portage trails throughout the Border Lakes region. The second week of this program allows participants to plan their own canoeing journey through the Boundary Lakes Canoe Area Wilderness in Minnesota.
- 2) OA Canadian Odyssey-Participants must be at least 16 years old and registered members of an OA lodge. The first week of this program has participants restoring portage trails throughout the Border Lakes region. The second week of this program allows participants to plan their own canoeing journey through Quetico Provincial Park in Canada.
- 3) Forest Corps-This program is an outdoor leadership training course. Participants in the program will design their own itinerary for canoeing, camping, and learning in the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness. Participants will learn Leave No Trace principles, conservation, wilderness first aid, advanced camping skills, field science, outdoor education, and leadership.
- 4) Lone Voyageur-This program allows Scouts or Venturers that are at least 14 years old to attend the Northern Tier program at Charles L Sommers Wilderness Canoe Base with a provisional crew.

Special Programs:

1) Fishing Expeditions-This program operates from Donald Rogert Canoe Base. This program has a special emphasis on fishing. Participants will canoe and fish throughout the waters of Northwestern Ontario.

2) Kayak Treks-This program operates from Donald Rogert Canoe Base. This program allows participants to plan an itinerary for kayaking and camping throughout the waters of Canada.

Autumn Adventures:

1) Autumn Canoe Trips-Participants will canoe throughout the Canoe Country of the Boundary Waters in Minnesota.

2) Backpacking Trips-Participants can take backpacking treks through the wilderness of Minnesota's Boundary Waters. There are three very popularly hiked trails: the 8 to 10 mile Ennis Lake Trail, which is perfect for inexperienced backpackers, the 15 to 20 mile Anglemorm Trail, which is perfect for a 2 or 3 night trip, and the 25 to 30 mile Snowbank Trail, which is a rugged trail designed for more experienced backpackers.

3) Fishing Trips-Participants can design their own itineraries for fishing throughout the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness.

Winter Adventures:

camping. The participants stay in heated cabins each night, but explore the wilderness during the day. Participants may learn how to cross-country ski, snowshoe, and ice fish.

2) OKPIK Weekend Samplers-This program teaches participants the basics of winter camping. Participants pack their gear onto sleds and travel into the wilderness for 1 or 2 nights. Participants will learn how to set up a winter campsite, build snow shelters, and cook meals at low temperatures. Participants will also be able to try out a variety of winter activities.

3) OKPIK Treks-This program allows participants to test their camping skills in a winter wilderness. Participants travel by ski, snowshoe, or on foot into the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness for at least two nights. Crews will travel between 5 and 15 miles during their trek through a remote winter wilderness.

4) Dogsled Trips-Participants will learn the basics of running and caring for sledging dogs. There are two types of trips: Musher camps, in which participants stay in a heated cabin on base, then take the dogs out for half-day and day-long runs, and dogsled treks, in which participants head into the wilderness and camp with the dogs out on the ice.

Valle Vidal Itineraries:

1) Some of the itineraries allow participants to backpack through the Valle Vidal, which has camps at Whiteman Vega, Ring Place, and Seally Canyon. Rich Cabins is private land where participants can camp as well.

Cavalcades:

1) Philmont Cavalcades follow the same itineraries as the backpacking treks, but crews ride horses instead of hiking.

STEM Treks:

1) STEM-Discovering The Possibilities For Your District and Council-Participants learn how to integrate STEM programs and activities into their current programming.

2) STEM Outdoor Explorations-Down and Dirty, Nitty-Gritty, and Sky High-Participants will explore the science of Philmont.

3) STEM-Backcountry Style-Participants will explore the Philmont backcountry in a whole new way.

Individual Treks:

1) Trail Crew Treks-Participants will prepare participants to earn the William T. Hornaday Silver Award. Participants must be at least 16 years old.
