Reports

- Lodge Officer Reports
 - Benton Forrester
 - The lodge funded a $900 trip for me to attend the National Council of Chiefs, where we were introduced to the OA’s updated mission, a new prototype induction process, and upcoming plans including a revised two-part ceremony replacing the Pre-Ordeal and Ordeal, changes in terminology (e.g., Elangomats to Luminaries), and removal of key traditions like the vow of silence and arrow shooting. While the new ceremonies received mixed reviews—some calling them poorly written and lacking context—they remain prototypes, with plans to finalize and pilot them in select lodges next year, alongside a new OA trek program at Philmont.
